

Prayers of the Faithful – 6th Sunday of Easter Year A

Celebrant: Father, prepare us to receive the outpouring of Your love in person of the Holy Spirit

- We pray for the Church – may we place our trust in the Lord seeking greater holiness through our prayers, words and actions.

Lord in your mercy

- We pray for our missionaries, priests, religious and all who spread His word – may God help them to proclaim the Good News, sustaining their spirits as they bring Christ's message of salvation to the world.

Lord in your mercy

- We pray for insight – may God help us to recognise the attitudes and situations that draw us away from Him, give us strength to face them and guide us in redirecting our choices and actions.

Lord in your mercy

- We pray for more love and respect among the peoples of the world, so that all can live in peace and that developed nations generously help the less well-off to be free from the oppression of hunger and poverty.

Lord in your mercy

- We pray for all our sick, especially:-

Theresa Mooney, John Dobbin, Anne McClure, Jean McCapra, Faith Lindsay, Wendy Leonard, Kitty Finlay, Rosina Boyle, Bridie Freeland and John Freeland.

May our Mother Mary be close to those who suffer and bless the work of all who care for them.

Lord in your mercy

- We pray for our beloved dead: Nan McLaughlin and George Sweeney whose months minds occur at this time.

We also pray for the anniversaries of Joseph & Eveleen McGlone and Margaret Kerrigan.

May they know the true joy of living in God's presence for all eternity.

Lord in your mercy

Celebrant: Loving Father,
In Your mercy, hear and answer our prayers that we make through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
