

Holy Michael, the Archangel
defend us in the day of battle.
Be our safeguard
against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him we humbly pray and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host
by the power of God thrust down into hell,
Satan and all the other wicked spirits
who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

*(Prayer composed by Pope Leo XIII 1886 to be said at the end of Mass.
The prayer fell into disuse but Pope Francis asked us to return it to use a few years ago.)*

Beatitudes for friends of aged

Blessed are they who understand
My faltering step and palsied hand.

Blessed are they who know my ears today
Must strain to catch the things they say.

Blessed are they who seem to know
My eyes are dim and wits are slow.

Blessed are they who looked away
When coffee spilled at breakfast today.

Blessed are they with a cheery smile
Who stop to chat for a little while.

Blessed are they who never say
You told that story twice today.

Blessed are they who know the way
To bring back memories of yesterday.

Blessed are they who make it known
That I am loved, respected and not alone.

Blessed are they who know I'm at a loss
To find the strength to carry my cross.

Blessed are they who ease the days
Of my journey home in loving ways.

Esther Mary Walker – 1958
