

Prayers of the Faithful – 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Celebrant: Trusting in the Father's merciful love, we offer our prayers to Him:

- ☐ We pray for the Church – may we as God's people, faithfully meditate on His love, mercy and forgiveness and be guided by these virtues in all that we do.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray for the grace to seek reconciliation with the Lord through the sacraments and a willingness to forgive those who have injured us - may God free our hearts to forgive them as He forgives us.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life – may the Lord send more labourers to the harvest to spread His Good News and may those who the Lord calls be blessed and eager to serve with faith, hope and love.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray for the healing of nations across the world – may the Lord bring an end to violence and chaos particularly in Ukraine and the Middle East and open pathways for justice and peace to be established for all.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray for all our sick, especially:-

Theresa Mooney, John Dobbin, Anne McClure, Jean McCapra, Faith Lindsay, Wendy Leonard, Kitty Finlay, John Freeland, Joseph Robb, Raymond Cameron and Agnes Patterson.

May the Lord ease their suffering and bring them peace and comfort.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray for our beloved dead and all who have gone before us especially:- Joseph Coulter who died recently.

We remember the anniversaries of John & Teresa Berry; James McCarron. We also pray for Margaret Lindsay whose months mind occurs at this time.

May they rest in the eternal light and peace of Christ.

Lord in your mercy

Celebrant: Loving Father,
Have mercy on us and on the whole world as we appeal to You with our petitions.
We ask that You hear and answer them, that we make through Christ our Lord. Amen.
