

Prayers of the Faithful – Solemnity of All Saints Year A

Celebrant: Father in Heaven, we join the many holy men & women throughout time, who offer their devotion to You:

- ☐ We pray for the Church – may it continuously gather a great multitude from every nation, guiding souls to the salvation of the Lord where they will wash their robes in the blood of the Lamb.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray for our parish community – may we purify ourselves through the grace of God, striving to live in holiness through our prayer life and reading of the scriptures as we confidently hope to see Him as He is.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray for the outcasts of our society who feel unloved or rejected – may we welcome all so they may experience their true worth as beloved children of God, finding acceptance and dignity within society.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray that our world leaders may act as true peacemakers, bringing justice, mercy, wisdom and comfort to nations burdened by poverty, conflict and injustice.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ We pray for all our sick, especially:-

Theresa Mooney, John Dobbin, Anne McClure, Jean McCapra, Faith Lindsay, Wendy Leonard, Kitty Finlay, John Freeland, Raymond Cameron, Agnes Patterson and Tommy Larkin(Jnr).

May the Holy Spirit ease their suffering and bring them peace and healing.

Lord in your mercy

- ☐ In this month of the Holy Souls, we pray for all our beloved dead and all who have gone before us, we commend the soul of Fr Brian Logue to your never-ending mercy.

We also pray for Andrew Lauder; Margaret Grattan; Robert Scott; Ellen Rooney; James Duffy; Patrick Dunn whose anniversaries occur at this time. We pray for the months mind of Joseph Robb.

May they join the great multitude of saints before the throne of God, rejoicing in eternal life.

Lord in your mercy

Celebrant: Loving Father,

Relying on Your never-ending, mercy, like so many have done so in the past, we offer our petitions to You. God of the living and the dead, hear and answer these prayers that are made through Christ our Lord. Amen.
